FIFEF – ESTAF 2025 : The Major Taxation Event in Africa to be Held in Accra !

TAX & LAWS is organizing the third edition of the Forum International de Fiscalité des États Francophones d'Afrique – English Speaking Countries' International Tax Forum (FIFEF - ESTAF) on February 24-25, 2025, in Accra, Ghana.

This flagship event, themed Comparison of Tax Systems and Practices Between English-Speaking and French-Speaking African Countries," will bring together tax experts, policymakers, business leaders, and investors to analyze and compare the tax systems of both linguistic blocs on the continent.

FIFEF – ESTAF : A Strategic Forum for Economic and Tax Stakeholders

The FIFEF – ESTAF provides a unique platform to:

- ✓ Bridge the gap between the two tax systems. This forum helps understand the differences between the taxation systems of French-speaking and English-speaking African countries—an invaluable asset for international corporations navigating Africa's economic landscape.
- ✓ Join and integrate a network of experts and key stakeholders. The event will bring together senior officials, tax experts, business leaders, and international consultants. It presents a rare opportunity to discuss tax reforms and share best practices.
- ✓ Identify practical solutions to optimize taxation. Participants will gain insights into tax optimization opportunities, anticipate legal changes, and adapt their strategies to African realities.
- ✓ Develop a country-by-country comparative tax framework.

In a context where fiscal policies play a crucial role in investment attractiveness and economic growth, FIFEF – ESTAF positions itself as a space for dialogue and tax innovation to foster a more business-friendly environment in Africa.

Registrations Are Now Open !

Don't miss this unique opportunity to engage with Africa's top tax experts.
